PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM

The program provides $350 billion of payroll support through 100 percent federally guaranteed loans through the 7(a) SBA loan program to employers who maintain their payroll during this emergency. If employers maintain their payroll, the loans will be forgiven, which will help workers remain employed, as well as help affected small businesses and our economy snap-back quicker after the crisis. Loans available through June 30, 2020. To be eligible you must:

- be a small business with less than 500 employees or meet the applicable size standard established by the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS). Sole proprietorships, independent contractors, and self-employed individuals also qualify.
- be a 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(19) non-profit with 500 employees or fewer.
- be able to provide documentation verifying the number of employees on payroll and pay rates, including IRS payroll tax filings and State income, payroll and unemployment insurance filings.

The maximum allowable loan under the PPP is $10 million and is equal to 250 percent of your average monthly payroll costs during that time period. These loans are conditional in that business must retain their employees and payroll levels, if you keep all of your employees, the entirety of the loan will be forgiven. If you still lay off employees, the forgiveness will be reduced by the percent decrease in the number of employees.

SMALL BUSINESS DEBT RELIEF PROGRAM

This program will provide immediate relief to small businesses with non-disaster SBA loans, in particular, 7(a), 504 and microloans. Under it, SBA will cover all loan payments on these SBA loans, including principal, interest and fees for six months. This relief will also be available to new borrowers who take out loans within six months of the President signing the bill into law. Below, you will find more information regarding this loan as well as the link to the debt relief program

SMALL BUSINESS DEBT RELIEF PROGRAM Q&A

Q: How do I know if I am eligible for a 7(a), 504 or microloan?

A: In general, businesses must meet size standards, be based in the US, be able to repay and have a sound business purpose. To check whether a business is considered small, they will need their businesses' 6-digit North American Industry Classification Systems (NAICS) code and 3-year average annual revenue.

Q: What is a 7(a) loan and how do I apply?

A: They are an affordable loan product of up to $5 million for borrowers who lack credit elsewhere and need access to versatile financing, providing short term or long-term working capital and to purchase existing businesses, refinance current business debt or purchase furniture, fixtures or supplies. In the program, banks share a portion of the risk of the loan with SBA.

Q: What is a 504 loan and how do I apply?

A: Provides loans of up to $5.5 million to approved small businesses with long term, fixed rate financing used to acquire assets for expansion or modernization. It is a good option if you need to purchase real estate or buildings or machinery. You can apply through a Certified Development Company, which is a non-profit organization that promotes economic development.

Q: What is a microloan program and how do I apply?

A: Provides up to $50,000 to help small businesses and certain non-profit children centers to start up and expand. The average microloan is $13,000. These loans are delivered through missed-based lenders who are also able to provide business counseling.

COVID-19 TELEHEALTH PROGRAM

The COVID-19 Telehealth Program will provide $200 million in funding, appropriated by Congress as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, to help health care providers provide connected care services to patients at their homes or mobile locations in response to the novel Coronavirus 2019 disease (COVID-19) pandemic.

On April 2, 2020, the Commission released an order establishing the COVID-19 Telehealth Program. The COVID-19 Telehealth Program will provide immediate support to eligible health care providers responding to the COVID-19 pandemic by fully funding their telecommunications services, information services, and devices necessary to provide critical connected care services until the program's funds have been expended or the COVID-19 pandemic has ended.

MAIN STREET LENDING PROGRAM (MAIN STREET NEW LOAN FACILITY AND MAIN STREET EXPANDED LOAN FACILITY)

The Federal Reserve established the Main Street Lending Program to enhance support for small and mid-sized businesses that were in good financial standing before the crisis by offering 4-year loans to companies employing up to 10,000 workers or with revenues of less than $2.5 billion. Principal and interest payments will be deferred for one year. Eligible banks may originate new Main Street loans or use Main Street loans to increase the size of existing loans to businesses. Banks will retain a 5 percent share, selling the remaining 95 percent to the Main Street facility, which will purchase up to $600 billion of loans. Firms seeking Main Street loans must commit to make reasonable efforts to maintain payroll and retain workers.

Borrowers must also follow compensation, stock repurchase, and dividend restrictions that apply to direct loan programs under the CARES Act. Firms that have taken advantage of the PPP may also take out Main Street loans. The Federal Reserve and the Treasury recognize that businesses vary widely in their financing needs, particularly at this time and, as the program is being finalized, will continue to seek input from lenders, borrowers, and other stakeholders to make sure the program supports the economy as effectively and efficiently as possible while also safeguarding taxpayer funds. Comments may be sent via the feedback form until April 16.
